Committee Our Amateur Opera Club Returned on yesterday evening from Nash-ville, where they had a most delightful trip, and won for themselves a name and reputa-tion that professionals might envy. A very gratifying incident was the compliment of a celebrated actress who delighted our theatergoers last winter-Miss Pomeroy-who left her box and came on the stage and congratu lated them on their artistic success. We take pleasure in chronicling the success of this worthy club, and admire their ambition to go ahead and win fresh laurels in the production of another opera—on dit, La Somnambula. We understand there is a general desire for a repetition of Fra Diavolo—a grand matinee next Saturday—and it is probable the club known in Shelby county that any effort to embellish it would be like gilding refined gold. Mr. Waldran is absolutely faultless as a citizen. For fifty years he has been a voter in Shelby county, always working to promote the best interests of the people without any selfish aspirations in view, and this is the first time he has ever asked office at the hands of the people among whom he has se long lived. It is useless to speak of Mr. Waldran's qualifications for the office of county court clerk. In that capacity he would certainly be the right man in the right place. Everybody is familiar with the career of W. B. Waldran as secretary and treasurer of the Memphis and Charleston railroad For ten years he occupied this position, and his accounts were always balanced to a cent and all his books and papers were in perfect order. Mr. Waldran, if elected, will bring to the discharge of his duties as county cour clerk the same efficiency which rendered him so popular and useful as : ecretary and treasarer of the Memphis and Charleston railroad lf, with such a record, Mr. Waldran should e defeated in this his first aspiration for of fice, his friends will, no doubt, ask what incentive has a man for living a clean and exemplary life
